4. Open the Event Viewer and browse each category.

a.   Write down what types/categories of information (messages) are logged.

Custom views,

Windows logs,

Application and services logs,

Subscriptions

b.   Describe the function of each Windows Logs category. (5 marks)

Application: Show events and applications hosted on a Windows computer

Security: Shows login attempts and resource access Setup: Created when the software's installed.

System: enterprise-focused events relating to the control of domains.

Forwarded events: incidents on windows specific systems

6. How can you use Server Manager to add additional roles and features to your server? (1 mark)

Open Server Manager

Manage

Add roles and features

9. Describe the functionality of each of the following options (including the grayed-out selections). Use Help and Support from the Start menu, if required. (7 marks)

a)   Mark Partition as Active

The partition you mark as active will become the partition from which the computer starts up

b)   Change Drive Letter and Paths
You can literally change the letter associated with a given path

EX . From C to D

c)   Format

Prepping a data storage device for initial use

d)   Extend Volume

Allows you to add space to an existing volume, extending it into empty space on the drive

e)   Shrink Volume

Allows you to add space to an existing volume, extending it into empty space on the drive

f)   Add Mirror

A volume that provides data redundancy by using two copies, of the volume to duplicate the data that is stored on the volume.

g)   Delete Volume

Stop the mirroring on the selected volume and destroy all the data on the mirror disk

DHCP Server	Enables you to configure, manage and provide temporary IP addresses
DNS Server	Provides Name resolution for TCP/IP networks
Fax Server	Sends and receives faxes and allows you to manage fax resources
Hyper-V	Provides the services that you can use to create and manage virtual machines and their resources

Remote Access	Provides the services that you can use to create and manage virtual machines and their resources

Can your server perform multiple roles at once? (1 mark)

Yes…

What components are installed by default when you install IIS on Windows Server 2022? (1 mark)

-Default Document

-Directory Browsing

-HTTP errors

-Static contents

-HTTP Logging

-Static Content Compression

-Request Filtering

-IIS Management Control